

2008 Georgia Peanut Tour set for South Central Georgia area in September

The Georgia Peanut Tour Committee has set September 17-18, 2008, as the dates for the 22nd Annual Georgia Peanut Tour. An Early Bird Hot Topics' Seminar will also be held Tuesday, September 16, at 3:00 p.m. The tour spotlights South Central Georgia's peanut production area. The Early Bird "Hot Topics" Seminar will be held at the Country Inn & Suites in Cordele, Ga.

The tour includes a cross section of field conditions in South Central Georgia, peanut harvest clinics, University of Georgia Southwest Research and Education Center in Plains, Ga., Coastal Plain Experiment Station in Tifton, Ga., and the National Peanut Research Laboratory in Dawson, Ga., peanut handling and grading facilities.

The registration fee is $35 per person before August 4, which includes all meals and reserved transportation during the tour. For more information about the 22nd Annual Georgia Peanut Tour contact the Georgia Peanut Commission at (229) 386-3470 or tammy@gapeanuts.com. Tour information will also be updated on www.gapeanuts.com.

The Georgia Peanut Commission, University of Georgia-Tifton Campus and Griffin Campus, Southwest Research & Education Center, Attopulgus Research & Education Center, and the USDA Agricultural Research Service National Peanut Research Lab coordinate the tour.

John Beasley, University of Georgia Extension peanut agronomist, explains peanut production to attendees on the 2007 Georgia Peanut Tour.
